During the past several weeks I have had a complete resurvey made of the vacancies existing in this agency with a view to determining whether at this time there might be a position available for which you would be suited.

It is regretted that there has been no change in the situation since your application was previously considered, and that no suitable position is currently available. It is not possible to predict whether an appropriate vacancy will occur in the reasonably near future.

Your continued interest in this agency is appreciated.

Sincerely,
